If you are aggrieved by a decision made by NTPFES regarding your Freedom of Information (FOI) application or application for correction of your personal information, you can use this form to apply for the decision to be reviewed by a different person within NTPFES. You must submit your application for review within 30 days of receiving the decision. Applications for a review of a decision are free of charge.

Please send your completed application form including a clear certified copy of your photo ID to the Information Access Team by email or mail. If you submit your form at an NT Police Station, the receiving officer will certify your ID and forward your application to the Information Access Team for you.
